ANNEXURE REFERRED TO IN PARAGRAPH 3 OF THE AUDITOR'S REPORT OF EVEN DATE TO THE MEMBERS OF THE AKSHARCHEM (INDIA) LIMITED ON THE ACCOUNTS FOR THE YEAR ENDED ON 31st March 2011.

On the basis of such checks of books and records, as we considered appropriate and in terms of the information and explanations given to us during the course of our audit, we state that:

1. a) The Company has maintained proper records showing full particulars including quantitative details and situation of fixed assets.
b) As explained to us, fixed assets, according to the practice of the company, are physically verified by the management at reasonable intervals, in phased verification programme, which in our opinion, is reasonable looking to the size of the Company and the nature of its business. As explained to us, on such physical verification of fixed assets, no major discrepancies have been noticed.
c) The Company has not disposed off any substantial part of the fixed assets during the year and the going concern status of the company is not affected.
2. a) During the year, the inventories have been physically verified, by the Management and the Internal Auditors at regular intervals, except for the stock lying with the outside parties, which have, however, been confirmed by them. In our opinion, the frequency of verification is reasonable.
b) In our opinion and according to the information and explanations given to us, the procedure of the physical verification of inventories followed by the Management and Internal Auditors are reasonable and adequate in relation to the size of the company and the nature of its business.
c) On the basis of our examination of records of the inventories, we are of the opinion that, the Company is maintaining proper records of inventories. Discrepancies noticed on the physical verification of the inventories as compared to the book records were not material and have been properly dealt with in the books of accounts.
3. a) As per the information and explanations given to us, the Company has not granted any loans, secured or unsecured loans to Companies, firms or other parties listed in the register maintained under Section 301 of the Companies Act, 1956. Accordingly clauses 3(b), 3(c) and 3(d) of Paragraph 4 of the Order are not applicable to the company for the current year.
b) As per the information and explanations given to us, the Company has not taken any loans, secured or unsecured loans from Companies, firms or other parties listed in the register maintained under Section 301 of the Companies Act, 1956. Accordingly clauses 3(f) and 3(g) of Paragraph 4 of the Order are not applicable to the company for the current year.
4. In our opinion and as per the information and explanations given to us, there is adequate internal control system commensurate with the size of the company and the nature of its business with regards to purchase of inventory and fixed assets and sale of goods and services. During the course of our audit, no major weaknesses in the internal control system have been noticed and there is no continuing failure in the same.
5. a) Based on the audit procedure applied by us and according to the information and explanations and representations given to us by the management, we are of the opinion that the transactions in which directors were interested and which need to be entered into the register to be maintained under Section 301 of the Companies Act, 1956 have been so entered.
b) In our opinion and as per the information and explanations given to us, the transaction made in pursuance of contracts or arrangements entered in the register maintained under Section 301 of the Companies Act, 1956 exceeding the value of rupees five lakhs in respect of any party during the year is reasonable having regard to the prevailing market prices at the relevant time.
6. In our opinion and as per the information and explanations given to us, as the company has not accepted any deposits from the public, paragraph 4(vi) of the order is not applicable.
7. On the basis of internal audit reports broadly reviewed by us, we are of the opinion that the coverage of internal audit functions carried out by the internal auditor is commensurate with the size and the nature of business.
8. We have broadly reviewed the books of accounts maintained by the company pursuant to Rules made by the Central Government, for the maintenance of cost records prescribed under section 209 (1)(d) of the Companies Act, 1956. We are of the opinion that prima facie the prescribed accounts and records have been made and maintained. We have not, however made a detailed examination of the records with a view to determining whether they are accurate or complete.

ANNUAL REPORT 2010-2011

SCHEDULE - 19 : SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES AND NOTES FORMING PART OF ACCOUNTSI. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES*1. Basis of preparation*a. Disclosure of Accounting Policies

The Financial Statements are prepared under the historical cost convention on the basis of going concern and in accordance with the Generally Accepted Accounting Principles in India and provisions of the Companies Act, 1956.

b. Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements requires estimates and assumptions to be made that affect the reported amount of assets and liabilities on the date of the financial statements and the reported amount of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Difference between the actual results and estimates are recognized in the period in which results are known/materialized.

2. Inventories Valuation

- a. Raw material, are valued at lower of the cost on FIFO basis including incidental expenses to bring the inventories to their present location and condition and estimated net realizable value after providing for cost of obsolescence and other anticipated losses, wherever considered necessary.
- b. Packing Materials and Stores & Spares are valued at cost on FIFO basis.
- c. Finished goods and work in process include cost, cost of conversion and other cost incurred in bringing the inventories to their present location and condition; and market realizable value whichever is lower. Trading goods are valued at cost on FIFO basis or market value whichever is lower. By products are valued at net realizable value.
- d. The Company is mainly engaged in the export business, the closing stock at the year end is generally exported in the next year. Exports are being exempted from excise duty, Hence no provision for excise duty has been made in Profit & Loss Account and Finished goods are valued without adding therein excise duty. However the said liability if accounted would have no effect on the profit for the year.

3. Cash Flow Statement

Cash Flow Statement is prepared under "Indirect method". The cash flow from operating, investing and financing activities of the Company are segregated.

4. Contingencies and Event occurring after the Balance Sheet Date
